FRIDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1874-REPLY TO "THE CONQUERED

BANNER. BT SIR II. HOUGHTON, BART, ENGLAND.

Gallant nation, foiled by numbers, Say not that your hopes are fled; Keep that glorious flag that slumbers One day to avenge your dead.

Keep it widowed, scaless mothers, Keep it sisters, mourning brothers-Furl it with an iron will, Furl it now, but-keep it still, Think not that its work is done

Keep it till your children take it Once again to hall and make it All their sires have bled and fought for, All their noble hearts have sought for, Bled and fought for all alene.

All slone! Ay, shame the story-Millions here deplore the stain-Shame, Alas! for England's glory-Freedom called, and called in vain.

Furl that banner sadly, slowly, Treat it gently, for t'is holy, Till that day-yes, furl it sadly, Then once more unfurl it gladly-Conquered banner, keep it still.

We understand that Grand Master W. E. Edwards, of Lincolnton, will arrive in the city next week on a visit to the Lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows established here.

Rev. J. E. Mann.

The Go'dsboro Messenger congratugratulates the congregation of the Wilmington Front Street M. E. Church on having secured the Rev. J. E. Mann for pastor of their Church, to succeed the distinguished Dr. Moran. Mr. Mann is one of the ablest ministers of the North Carolina Conference. It Church gives him up.

The Raleigh News.

Our enterprising neighbors of the Raleigh News, undisturbed by the hard times, have recently made a provement of their sprightly paper. It is now a thirty-two column daily, and can justly claim the front rank among the newspapers published in the South. We are glad to chronicle this evidence of a prosperity that has been so worthily earned.

Good Luck to a Sheriff.

The Raleigh Sentinel says: Sheriff Sykes, Republican, of Bladen county, is indebted for a piece of good luck to having one Democrat on the Board duty, has, of his own accord, asked of County Commissioners. It seems for, and by the vote of the Conference | that the Sheriff, a year or so ago, paid in to the Auditor six hundred and thirty dollars more tax money than was really due. This mistake was made by the Register of Deeds in summing the columns up, and in the last election, a Democrat chanced to be elected on the Board, who soon discovred the mistake and let the Sheriff in to being a half thousand dollars better off than he ever imagined. A bill has been prepared in the Senate to pay back the Sheriff his six hundred and thirty dollars, and he will return home enriched by Democracy.
